

PhD position in finance

At the Institute of Financial Analysis, University of Neuchâtel.

Profile: Master in economics or finance
Strong research potential and interest in empirical finance
Preferably in the areas of corporate/international finance or financial markets
Good command of English, preferably some command of French
Age limit: 30 years old

Starting date: January 2012 (or upon agreement).

Position information: Participation in the various activities of the Institute
Assisting in bachelor and master courses
Student support

Duration: Maximum 4 years, renewable on a yearly basis

Salary: Part time position (60% the first year, possibly increased to 80% for additional years).
We offer a competitive compensation according to legal base
<http://www2.unine.ch/rh/page-7786.html>

Candidates should send their application to messagerie.iaf@unine.ch in a pdf file and in the following order (a) motivation letter (b) CV (c) diplomas and copy of transcripts (d) two letters of recommendation before Dec 15th, 2011. For further information, please contact Professor Carolina Salva (carolina.salva@unine.ch).

The University of Neuchâtel is an Equal Opportunity Employer. To learn more about the Institute of Financial Analysis please visit our website at: <http://www2.unine.ch/iaf/page-7925.html>.