

Advancing careers. Advancing everyday life.

Glencore is one of the world's largest globally diversified natural resource companies and a major producer and marketer of more than 60 commodities. Our operations comprise of around 150 mining, metallurgical and oil production assets. Our purpose is to responsibly source the commodities that advance everyday life. Employing 135,000 people globally, people are at the heart of our business, and we aim to attract employees who strive to be leaders in their field.

Internship Zinc/Copper

Zinc/Copper Department

Baar, Switzerland

Start date: upon agreement

Employment level: from 3 to 6 months

Joining a dynamic team, the successful intern will have the opportunity to gain insight across a range of different teams including - Copper, Zinc and Moly Traffic, Chartering, Hedge Unit, Copper Metal, Molybdenum and Cobalt Trading.

We are looking for a candidate who...

- is currently undertaking a graduate course or recently completed university
- has a strong interest in the commodity business
- has an open, flexible and team-oriented personality with an interdisciplinary thinking and solution-oriented working attitude
- has a high English standard (corporate language), any other language is a great asset
- has a good know-how in using IT applications (MS office)

What we offer:

- attractive prospects for personal development through training and coaching
- benefits such as in-house gym activities, healthy nutrition, free parking or financial support for public transportation
- culture of collaboration across all disciplines

Application:

Please submit your complete application (English CV, motivation letter, certificates as well as valid permit/passport) to our HR Operations Team - Baar.HR@glencore.com