

Accepted Topics for the Master Seminar in Law, Business and Economic Policy in 2018/19

1. Gluten free products: An analysis of relative prices in the food markets of the United States and Switzerland
2. Cryptoasset Returns and Social Media Sentiment
3. The US Protection against steel: Trump vs Bush
4. The role of financial stress for the effectiveness of quantitative easing: a comparison between the US and the Euro Area
5. Venture Capital and the role of government - A comparative analysis between Switzerland and the United States of America
6. What are the reasons for the differences in GM-crop regulation between the USA and the EU? Individual Economic Incentives or Institutional Setting?
7. Gambling regulation in the European and US market: Differences and impacts
8. In which way do the United States of America and Switzerland differ with respect to startups: an economic analysis with focus on the Life Science sector
9. Harley-Davidson between Opportunity and Risk: An Analysis of the "Trade War 2018" and Different Strategies for Actions
10. United in diversity? Comparison of labor market outcomes of people with disabilities between the US and European countries
11. Macroprudential Stress Testing of Systemically Important Banks – A Comparison between the USA and Switzerland
12. Do different democratic characteristics influence the lobbying process? An analysis based on examples in the United States and Switzerland
13. More guns, less crime? A Comparison of Gun Policies in the U.S. and Switzerland
14. The impact of demographic change on pension systems in Switzerland and the United States of America
15. Regulation of e-Cigarettes - A theoretical approach
16. Infrastructure investments, a strategic asset class for pension funds: A comparative analysis of the US and Switzerland
17. Income inequality – Comparison between the US and Germany