

Declaration of Contributions in Cumulative Dissertations

All parts of the thesis that refer to joint works with co-authors need to be declared accordingly. A declaration marking the PhD candidate's as well as the co-authors' contributions (e.g. idea, empirical models, theoretical models, data analysis, text etc.) per chapter has to be submitted duly signed by all parties involved. A declaration is also needed for single-authored papers.

Paper

Title

Author | Doctoral Student

Name, First name:

Main contributions

Co-Author

Name, First name:

Main contributions

Co-Author

Name, First name:

Main contributions

Co-Author(s)

Name(s), First name(s):

Main contributions

Signatures of all authors